

Federal Bar Association

A Checklist Guide to Planning Diverse, Equitable, and Inclusive Events

Content		Timing and Location
	Theme: Does the substance of the event advance the Chapter's goals for diversity, equity, and inclusion? See the Strategic Plan for Diversity &amp; Inclusion .		Date: Does the event avoid conflicts with civic and religious holidays and affinity bar group events? Check and update the Community Calendar for Affinity Bar Events .
	Speakers: Do the speakers have diverse backgrounds and experiences?		Venue: Is this a place that historically and currently has welcomed all?
	Audience: Is the programming inclusive of all perspectives and abilities to participate, considering varied formats like panels, workshops, and other activities?		Accessibility: Are the venue and format accessible to everyone, including individuals with disabilities and virtual attendees? Study the Planning Accessible Events Manual .
	Meals and Entertainment		Collaboration
	Food: Does the menu account for dietary restrictions (e.g., vegetarian/vegan, gluten free, and non-dairy options)? Is the caterer diversely owned or operated?		Funding: Are there opportunities for grants, sponsorships, and other funding from National FBA and other sources? Apply for Outreach and Diversity Grants .
	Beverages: Does the event offer a variety of non-alcoholic beverages?		Partners: Will any affinity bar or other groups co-host or co-sponsor the event?
	Music: Are the performers of any music or entertainment diverse?		Community Giveback: Does the event aid the missions of community partners?
Communication		Chapter and Membership
	Invitations: Do the save-the-date, invitation, and reminder emails follow the Online Communications Request Form , including that they use plain language and alt text, address all genders, and include an accommodations contact?		New Members: Does the event help diversify the Chapter's membership, including by encouraging attendees to join the FBA and get involved in Chapter initiatives? Consider sending attendee lists to the Membership Committee.
	Outreach: Is the event being promoted to a wide range of audiences? Team up with the Affinity Bar Liaison Coordinator .		CLEs: Does the event qualify for CLE credit, particularly credit for elimination of bias or ethics?
	Pricing: Will registration be free or allow for dynamic pricing (e.g., public v. private) or sponsored tickets?		Bar Talk: Will the event be featured in Bar Talk ? Notify the Bar Talk Co-Chairs and line up an author (e.g., member or attendee).

If you would like any guidance, please reach out to the Diversity and Inclusion Committee.